

BRADLEY HALL BAND

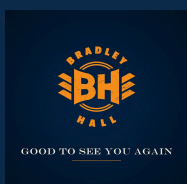

COUNTRY ROCK FROM THE HEART OF THE PILBARA

BIOGRAPHY

Soulful storytelling runs through Bradley Hall's blood. A Nyiyaparli man from the East Pilbara in Western Australia, Bradley is no stranger to red dirt roads, fresh country air and long drives through beautiful country.

His love of country music and sharing stories has taken him more than 100,000 kilometres across 30+ tours of regional WA, Queensland, New South Wales and New Zealand – playing festivals, pubs, clubs, rodeos and mine sites with a full-tilt country rock band.

Bradley draws his songs from life on the road, family and Country. He founded the Red Country Music Festival in the Pilbara, has released four studio albums with airplay across community radio and the ABC, and has shared the stage with some of Australia's biggest country stars.
